Pretty Home Wedding.

At a quiet, yet exceeding pretty home wedding, Miss Nattalieu Isabelle Vanderpool was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. William E. Gholdson, of Atlanta, Ga., the wedding being solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Vanderpool, 903 East Adams Street, Jacksonville, Florida, at 8 o'clock.

The house was beautifully decorated with quantities of ferns and palms, intermingled with fragrant flowers which lent a pretty touch of color.

The drawing room was all in green, palms and ferns being banked in one corner of the room to form an altar. Prior to the wedding, a pretty musical program was rendered. Mr. Lyman Prior beautifully rendered Love's Coronation; and Miss Rhea Vanderpool, a sister of the bride, sweetly sang, O Promise Me. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Emma Vanderpool, who also played the wedding march.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, the appointed hour, the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin pealed forth, heralding the entrance of the bridal party.

First came the matron of honor, Mrs. C. H. Johnson, a sister of the bride, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Eunice Somers. They were attractively attired in creations of white voile fashioned over white messaline, and carried arm bouquets of bridesmaid roses.

Next came the bride, who entered with her father, Mr. E. Vanderpool, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Cornelius Vanderpool, brother of the bride.

The beautiful ring ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. J. T. Boone, pastor of the First Christian Church. Mr. A. H. Walker, of St. Augustine, officiated as interpreter.

The contracting parties are deaf-mutes, and Mr. Walker, an instructor in the institute for deaf and dumb, a former teacher of the bride, interpreted the ceremony.

After the ceremony, an informal reception was held.

The bride was charmingly attired in her traveling costume, a handsome coat suit of pongee with trimmings of dark brown. With this were worn hat, gloves, and shoes to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses.

During the reception hour, a dainty supper was served. The adjoining room was done in red and green, carnations being used in profusion, while the parlor was done in pink carnations.

Pink carnations adorned the daintily appointed dining table. Here the dainties were served. Assisting were Mrs. V. Hartley, Mrs. J. Somers and little Misses Vanderpool, Marguerite Norris and Nadaline Snelling.

As the bride ascended the stairs she threw her bouquet to the girls who gathered in the hall. It was caught by her sister, Miss Rhea Vanderpool.

The happy couple left for their future home in Atlanta, Ga., where the groom is in business. They were accompanied to the station by many friends and relatives, and boarded the train amid a shower of rice and good wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

They received many handsome wedding presents. The bride attended the deaf and dumb institute in St. Augustine, and has many friends there and in this city, who will regret to learn that she will make her future home in Georgia. It was while attending a convention of mutes in Atlanta last summer that the bride and groom of last night became acquainted.

Mr. William E. Gholdson is engaged around the printing trade at Atlanta, Ga.

The Columbus Advance Society has appointed a committee to cooperate with the Local Committee in the arrangements for the picnic. Refreshments, lunch, etc., will be served at the Home, and the proceeds therefrom go to the Home Fund.

ACCOMMODATIONS.

The Southern Hotel has been designated official headquarters. Its rate to delegates and visiting members is $1.00 per day, European plan. In connection with the hotel there is an excellent cafe serving club breakfasts, table d'hote, luncheon and dinner. It is first-class in all respects.

Those wishing to reserve accommodations in advance may write the Chairman of the Local Committee. His address is 1013 E. Rich Street. It is advisable that all delegates do this, also that they make their headquarters at the Southern, if possible.

Committees have been appointed to meet trains and attend to the comfort of the visitors in every way possible.

There's no better way you could spend your vacation than by taking in the convention of your order. Come to Columbus.

Spend your vacation at Columbus July 1-6. Convention of the N. F. S. D. convenes there July 1st and adjourns 6th with a grand banquet at the Southern Hotel.

July 4th, outing day, grand picnic at the Ohio Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf at Central College, 12 miles N. E. of the city. Don't miss it for it is worth coming to enjoy—in fact they are coming all the way from California, Louisiana, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Wisconsin to be the present. Doesn't that speak some for the worth while coming?—Don't miss it.

The Convention in itself is expected to be best ever—no small affair in that—See?

There'll be no less than six ministers present and all Frats at that, and good ones, too. That in itself ought to encourage the most skeptical individuals that the Society is straight.

Who gets the next Convention in 1915? Watch them scramble for it. Plenty of good picking. Lucky is the city that gets it. Will it be North, South, East or West? Watch the Gibson Chariot come thundering down from Chicago with its gaily decorated Grand Officers.

Delegates are expected to be here representing nearly every State in the Union. The National Fraternal Society of the Deaf is the best and the strongest Fraternal Organization for and by the Deaf in the world, and still growing. It embodies all that the deaf can never expect of any hearing organization. Here the humblest stands an equal chance with his more fortunate brother in all matters fraternal and otherwise. To be a man, you should be a Frat! To be a Frat is to be a man. If you have a family dependent upon you, be a Frat. If you have not—be a Frat any how. If you are past the age limit, be a Social Frat, and enjoy the many privileges it offers. If you are under the age limit—hurry up, and get out of it, and be a Frat. Anything just so you are a FRAT.

CHICAGO.

Mr. Knocker, please take notice. The Pas-A-Pas Club has secured the new quarters on 59 East Van Buren Street, Room 605, which the members can use on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and evenings and holidays only. Rent $25 per month, including some necessary expenses. The ideal location faces the noted Michigan Avenue and the view of Lake Michigan is clearly seen.

Non-resident visitors are always welcome.

At the last meeting of the club, Oscar H. Regensburg, of Chicago, and now in Los Angeles, California, was appointed an uninstructed delegate to the Interstate Convention in California.

On June 9th, at 4 P.M., in his Church, Rev. George Frederick Flick, married Frank Romandi and Valentine Pesant.

They have congratulations of their many friends. After the ceremony, the newly-weds made a honeymoon (?) to the room of the Pas-A-Pas Club, of which the groom is a member.

He is employed by the Fruit and Vegetable Commission, on Water Street, the world's busiest place.

On Decoration Day, there was an informal picnic in Washington Park, a large attendance being present.

Having a desire to get rid of Texas sickness, Herbert Gunner is now visiting his old home.

Professor Albert Berg, of the Indiana School, is at present an insurance agent here, and he seems unable to live without the Windy City.

Chairman Liebenstein of the annual picnic of the Pas-A-Pas Club, announced that the picnic was to be held at Kindel's Grove, Hammond, Ind., on Saturday, July 20. Price of admission, 25 cents. Boating, fishing and games. Those who are about to go, should remember the place and the date.

Recently the Chicago Chapter of the Illinois Association of the Deaf had a meeting and some business was transacted. The home fund is nearing the $10,000 mark, and our dream of establishing a home for the Aged and Infirm of Illinois may be realized within five years. It is announced that the picnic for the benefit of the fund will be held at Atlas Grove, 40th and Elston Avenues, on Labor Day (September 24).

Rev. P. J. Hasenstab will deliver a lecture before the Literary Circle of the Pas-A-Pas Club on June 29th. Leo Holway is wearing smiles. Why? Because his wife presented him a nine-pound baby. Mother and babe are doing well.

Mrs. Morton Henry and baby are visiting in Wisconsin, and Morton is not enjoying the life of a grass widower.

Anton Tanzer has been making a visit to New York.

CHURCH WORK.

ANOTHER DEAF MAN RECEIVES ORDERS IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

On Wednesday morning, June 12th, 1912, another deaf man received holy orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, thus making fourteen ordained to date in that church. The service took place in the Cathedral of Christ Church, New Orleans, Louisiana, before a large congregation of deaf and hearing people. The candidate, Mr. Hobart Lorraine Tracy, Gallaudet College, class of 1890, a teacher in the Louisiana School for the Deaf at Baton Rouge, La., is the third candidate presented by the Rev. O. J. Whildin, Missionary to the Deaf of the South, the other two being the Rev. George F. Flick of All Angels' Mission, Chicago, and the Rev. Herbert C. Merrill assistant at St. Barnabas Mission, Washington, D. C.

At this service the Bishop of Louisiana, the Rt. Rev. Davis Sessums, D.D., who ordained Mr. Tracy, paid a high and well deserved tribute to the sign-language by insisting that it be used throughout the service. It is usual for the candidate during the course of his public examination to respond orally to the questions of the Bishop, and, although Bishop Sessums knew, and so stated, that Mr. Tracy could speak well and fluently, he insisted that the sign-language fully met all the requirements of the purpose.

Furthermore, with that keen insight and fairness so often shown by educated and cultured and disinterested men and women, the good Bishop insisted that the sign-language was absolutely necessary in religious worship and in public address and that there could be found no substitute for it, either in the form of speech, reading, spelling, or writing. This position in regard to the use of the sign-language is being maintained generally by the Bishops and clergy of the Episcopal Church, and no stronger evidence of it could be shown than their eagerness to see a rapid and constant increase in the number of deaf-mute clergymen and deaf-mute congregations.

Rev. Mr. Tracy is the fourth deaf-mute to be ordained in the Episcopal Church since the memorable ordination sermon of the Episcopal Bishop Stevens, Philadelphia, in 1876. In this sermon, the occasion of which was the ordination of first deaf-mute in the world, the Rev. Henry Winter Syle, Bishop Stevens eloquently and convincingly upheld the right of the sign-language to live and to grow in strength and beauty and to be used by the deaf upon all occasions and in all places where a congregation or audience of deaf-mutes was assembled.

The Rev. H. Lorraine Tracy will continue his work as a teacher at Baton Rouge and as a minister at St. Paul's Mission, New Orleans, until his elevation to the Priesthood. After that event, which is not far off, he assumes charge of the Gulf Coast Diocese, thus relieving the Rev. Mr. Whildin of a large extent of territory in the far south.

There are four more deaf-mute candidates in the Episcopal Church studying diligently for orders. These will be announced in due time.

The N. A. D. Report.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I agree with the protests of Mrs. Maxwell and Mr. Gray against the important papers being omitted from the Colorado Springs report. We see that the Executive Committee of the N. A. D. has appropriated $250 for same. This is not enough.

The suggestion of a loyal superintendent of the school for the deaf about sending out printed copies of the proceedings to superintendents of city schools, presidents of Boards of Education in every city of any size, and public libraries, and raising a fund for these copies and mailing is very good and should be agreed by all the deaf. It is probably the best way to educate the public.

Having sent Treasurer Regensburg 50 cents, I would be glad to contribute another 50 cents.

Will the Executive Committee take back the decision and settle the above matter?

CHICAGO, June 14, 1912.

St. Louis Briefs.

A local paper of June 8th contained the following item:

"In a wedding ceremony during which not a word was spoken Charles Wolff, brother of Edward H. Wolff, president of the Wolff-Wilson Drug Company, and Mrs. Left Gotthaler, of Chicago, were married by Rabbi Samuel Sale at the Wolff residence, 3625 Lindell Boulevard, at 7 o'clock last night. Sign language and writing were employed.

"Both Mr. and Mrs. Wolff are deaf-mutes. Their courtship, silent as the wedding, extended over a period of several months. Letters are said to have been more frequently exchanged than in other courtships. When they made plans for the ceremony, Rabbi Sale's knowledge of the sign language led to his selection to officiate. Only intimate friends were present.

"After a brief honeymoon trip the couple will return to St. Louis. They will reside at 3814 Kennerly Avenue."

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wright, long and respected residents of the city, contemplate an early removal to Northeast Missouri to live once more amid the scenes of younger days. Mr. Wright has been the warden of St. Thomas' Mission for many years, and has been a liberal supporter and an active worker for all that has pertained for the general good. While the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Wright is the occasion of sincere regret, their St. Louis friends join in wishing them health, peace and plenty in the afternoon of their days.

The patrons and pupils of Gallaudet School had their annual picnic at Carondelet Park, a few days before the close of school for the summer. The weather conditions being ideal for the outing, there was a large attendance. Among the interesting features of the event was a ball game between the patrons and pupils. For a time it looked as if the patrons would win, but the score being 20 to 16.

The Gallaudet Union had its annual outing at the Chin-of-Rocks, a beautiful spot north of the city, rather out of the way and little visited, where is located the intake of the city's water supply. Miss Clara L. Steidemann planned the outing and attended to the little details which go far to make such a gathering a pleasant and profitable affair.

Missourians who contemplate attending the reunion of the Alumni Association of the State School at Fulton next August 31st, September 1st and 2nd, should communicate with Mr. Henry Goss, Fulton, Mo., with Suppl. and Mrs. Walker as host and hostess for the State, the event promises to eclipse all previous gatherings of the alumni.

Messrs. Biller and Arnot gave a sleight-of-hand performance under the N. F. S. D. auspices, at St. Thomas' Mission recently, which was largely attended and greatly appreciated. They will give a second performance in the fall, and in view of the success of the first, can count upon a record-breaking attendance.

Services at St. Thomas' Mission, 13th and Locust Streets, will be continued as usual throughout the summer at 10:42 A.M. The Sunday School will meet as usual at 9:35 A.M., with Miss Steidemann in charge. There are no week-day evening meetings or socials on the Mission program for July and August.

Rev. O. J. Whildin, of Baltimore, officiated at St. Thomas' Mission, June 16th, and preached an interesting sermon. There was a good attendance in spite of a heavy downpour of rain, which came on early and continued until late.

WEDDING BELLS.

SCHANTZ—VAN KIRK.

At the residence of the bride, 234 N. Penn Street, Allentown, Pa., Saturday, June 15th, Miss Grace C. Van Kirk was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Tiegman H. J.

Schantz. The Rev. Franklin C. Smielan, of Williamsport, Episcopal Missionary to the Deaf in the Diocese of Bethlehem, performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father, John Van Kirk. An elaborate supper was served, after which the happy couple left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will live in Allentown, where Mr. Schantz has a steady position in the mammoth brick plant.

The Gallaudet Memorial Guild House.

142th Street, West, near Amsterdam Avenue

WHAT WE SET OUT TO DO:
To erect a Memorial to the late Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D.D., which would fittingly perpetuate his memory in the City in which he lived and labored; emphasize the work among the deaf-mutes to which his life was so signally devoted; and be practical and useful means of benefiting the silent people (without distinction of denomination) by education both religious and secular, by entertainment, and by a community interest.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE:
We have, through the generosity of many friends, raised a fund of $24,000; we have adopted admirable plans prepared by Messrs. Satterlee & Boyd of New York; we have awarded the contract for the erection of the Guild House to the New York firm of the Hugh Getty Company, and the structure is now in process of erection.

WHAT WE MUST FURTHER DO:
Raise the sum of $5,000 additional; first, to meet the unlooked for contingency of a deeper excavation for the foundation of a section of "made ground" in the lot; and second, to adequately and becomingly furnish the building, that when completed it may fully meet its varied and practical purposes.

Subscriptions, which should be promptly in hand, may be sent to the Rev. Arthur H. Judge, 82 West 84th Street, New York City, or to Mr. Ogden D. Budd, Treasurer, 68 Broad Street, New York City.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:
The Rev. Arthur H. Judge, Rector of St. Matthew's Church, 5th Street West, near Central Park, New York.
The Rev. John Chamberlain, D. D., Vicar of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-mutes, West 148th Street, near Amsterdam Avenue, New York.
Miss Virginia Gallaudet, Greenwich, Conn.
Mr. Ogden D. Budd, Treasurer, 68 Broad Street, New York.
Mr. William J. Taylor, President of the William J. Taylor Company, 5 East 42d Street, New York.
Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson, Editor of the DEAF-MUTS JOURNAL, New York.

Resolutions

At a meeting of the congregation of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, on Sunday afternoon, June 16th, 1912, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, T. Broom Belfield Esq., of Philadelphia, has donated the generous sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) towards the building of a new Church and Parish House for All Souls' Church for the Deaf; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Managers of All Souls' Church, the parish organization of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, jointly with the congregation, in mass meeting, beg to make acknowledgment of this last great benefaction of the said T. Broom Belfield, Esq., and also of his many other evidences of interest in and helpfulness to All Souls' Church in the past; and

Resolved, That though words can not adequately express the deep sense of gratitude we feel for the gift which has at once made possible the erection of a new church, adopted to the special needs of the deaf, in a more desirable location, we yet ask the said T. Broom Belfield, Esq., to accept this simple expression of our heartfelt thanks for the gift and his kindly interest in the work of All Souls' Church, trusting that he when called hence, will receive that reward which is greater than any praise that man can bestow.

THE last number of the JOURNAL essayed to be a complete record of the Commencement features at the New York Institution. But one of the surprises that sometimes defeats calculation resulted in the omission of the most important feature of the occasion.

The little tots had danced and talked and enacted fairy stories, the older ones shown grade after grade the processes of intellectual and physical development, and the valedictorian had delivered his essay and said farewell, when President Stoddard of the Board of Directors, accompanied by the treasurer of the Board, Mr. William M. V. Hoffman, stepped forward to the centre of the platform and invited Principal Currier to the front. Mr. Hoffman, addressing the thousand or more people assembled, spoke, in substance, as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: What is now about to take place is not on the program. As this year marks the 40th anniversary of the Principal's connection with the Institution, it is most fitting that it should not pass without notice. At the last meeting of the Board of Directors, a committee was appointed to prepare a set of resolutions, as a testimonial to a man who stands at the head of the profession of educating the deaf; a man who is beloved by every teacher, pupil, and employee in the Institution; a man whose ability of organization and success of management is second to none. This man is you, Enoch Henry Currier, and I present to you, sir, in behalf of the Directors of [the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, these resolutions, illuminated and engrossed on everlasting parchment, and trust that you will be with us for many years to come."

President Stoddard read the resolutions and then tendered them to Principal Currier. The resolutions, which are framed and are a splendid example of the art of illuminating and engraving upon parchment, read as follows:—

at their meeting on May 21st, 1912, appointed a Committee to prepare a suitable resolution in view of the service of Enoch Henry Currier to the Institution. The Committee reported as follows:

The Board of Directors of the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb tender their hearty congratulations to upon reaching the FORTIETH YEAR of his service to the Institution. They recognize the undeviating devotion of Mr. Currier through this long period, to his varied duties as instructor, disciplinarian and principal.

In every situation in which Mr. Currier has been placed, he has reached the highest excellence. He has won the

of both the teachers and pupils, the esteem of directors and employees, and honor for the Institution and for his profession by an enthusiasm, patience and original invention which amounts to actual genius.

HE STANDS AT THE HEAD OF DEAF-MUTE INSTRUCTORS.

And we hope that he may be permitted to continue his connection with the Board and the Institution for MANY YEARS.

ARCHIBALD D. RUSSELL,
CHARLES A. LEALE,
EUGENE DELANO,
WILLIAM M. V. HOFFMAN,
Committee of the Board of Directors.

Principal Currier was deeply affected, and for once was unequal to the task of a fitting response. However, he managed to stammer a few words of thanks and to express his gratification that his services had merited the approval and appreciation of the Directors of the Institution.

After a congratulatory handclasp, President Stoddard again stepped forward and said: "No resolutions are complete without a gift, so the Directors have decided to confer upon Mr. Currier a gift. They have added one thousand five hundred dollars a year to his salary."

THE New York Institution flag drooped at half-mast on the last three days of the past week, in honor of a member of the Board of Directors who had passed away. General Michael Kerwin, who became a Director on the 18th day of May, 1897, died in the early hours of morning on Wednesday, June 20th. Death was caused by arterio sclerosis.

General Kerwin's tall, military figure was well-known by the deaf-mute pupils of the Institution during the past fifteen years. He invariably appeared at the various public exercises during the school year, and took a keen interest in the military drill of the battalion of cadets. Grave and quietly reserved in manner, he had a big heart and a kindly nature that went out to young and old alike. His generosity kept him comparatively a poor man, and his benefactions were given without any ostentation whatever—he gave with the spirit that enjoins us to let not thy right hand know what thy left hand doeth.

Gen. Kerwin was born in County Wexford, Ireland, on August 15th, 1837, and came to this country with his parents when ten years old. They settled in Philadelphia, and he learned the trade of lithographic printer. At the outbreak of the civil war he joined the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and saw service during the entire conflict.

He was made a captain of the Thirteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry and was attached to the Army of the Potomac. He joined Sherman in his march to the sea at Fayetteville, N. C., and commanded the third brigade of Kilpatrick's division. He remained at Fayetteville during the reconstruction period, and gave such an administration as to warrant a testimonial by the citizens. In 1867 he went to Ireland and joined the Fenian movement and was imprisoned for six months near Dublin.

Returning then to New York he established the New York Tablet in 1870. It was a weekly paper devoted to Irish and Roman Catholic news. In 1884 he set out to "break the solid Irish vote," as he expressed it, and became an ardent supporter of Thomas C. Platt. In 1899, President Harrison named him collector of internal revenue for the Second New York District, a place which he retained until 1894, when he was called upon by Mayor Gilroy to succeed John Mc-Clave as Police Commissioner. Mc-Clave had been forced to resign, because of the expose of the Lexow Committee, and just twenty-six minutes after his resignation was in, Gen. Kerwin was installed in his place. When Mayor Strong was elected, the General refused to resign and was forced out. In 1898 he was appointed pension agent, and was reappointed in 1902 and 1906.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter. Mrs. Kerwin was formerly the wife of Gen. Dennis F. Burke, for many years a close friend of Gen. Kerwin.

PITTSBURG.

The twenty-second annual commencement of the Western Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Edgewood Park, was held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the Institute. The program was given in the sign language for the students at the school, but was translated for those who could not understand it aurally. There are over 250 students enrolled this term, coming from all sections of the state.

The program of the commencement included the following:

Invocation, the Rev. James D. Rankin, of the First Presbyterian Church, Wilkensburg; Salutatory, William Johnson Gibson; Exercise by Fourth class pupils; Miss Hope McCord; Essay, "The Future America," Edward Boyle; Essay "China, the Newest Republic," Reed McKim; Recitation "Drifting," Keziah Reem; Essay "The Barbarism of War," Miss Helen Gertrude Beels; Horn Drill, Roy Hemphill, Vern, Cashdollar, John Bond, Doyle Frey, Herbert Rickenrode, Glen Amon, Hugh Cosgrove, Russel Diehl, Algernon Smith, and Mark Hanna; Valedictory, Miss Martha Isabel Weinell; presentation of diplomas, by J. The Institution has well equipped shops for carpentering and wood turning, printing office, blacksmith shop, foundry, machine shop and other departments of a manual training school, while the domestic science department for the girls taking the course is said to be as well arranged as in any of the larger schools. There are 22 members in the faculty, apart from Dr. William N. Burt, the superintendent, six of whom are men teachers. The directors include some of the best known men of Pittsburgh, with J. C. Wilson as president; A. H. Childs, vice president; J. R. McCune, treasurer, and Edward E. Duff, secretary.

Mrs. George Chathams, of Altoona, Pa., visited the School for the Deaf, on June 19th. She spent the day as Mrs. Ida Roesser's guest.

Mr. Sidney J. Vail, teacher at the Indiana School for the Deaf, was a visitor in this city for a few days. He visited his old friend, Dr. W. N. Burt, at the Edgewood School for the Deaf.

The Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf may be represented at the Convention of Teachers at Providence, R. I., by Dr. W. N. Burt, Superintendent, and Miss C. Yendes, Miss Jennie Cobb and Mr. Geddes.

The Pittsburgh Local Branch, P. S. A. D., had an entertainment on Saturday evening, June 8th. It was well enjoyed by all. The Committee arranged the program with pantomime charades. Those who took part in the charades were the Rolhouse girls, Misses M. Bracken, A. Bayers, E. Boyd, and Messrs. H. Bards, Col. Sawhill and F. Leitner. The names of the subject given in charades were: "Playful," "Sau-sage," and "Bar-gain Table."

Harkless and Hopkins exhibited their tricky plays for a few minutes. F. A. Leitner closed the program with a recitation on the "Death-bed of Benedict Arnold."

Mr. A. U. Downing related a story that appealed to those who were present to help him in hunting down impostors. He was applauded.

The Committee served ice cream and cake.

Miss Margaret Nolan, of Beaver Co., who had been living at Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baker for the last four years, was given a shower ceremony last Monday evening by a few of her closest friends. The guests of this surprise party were Mrs. R. Chesnut, her son, Floyd, and her daughter, Miss Elvora, Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Hendrick, Misses A. Peiffer, B. Jackson, K. Falk, Messrs. H. McMaster, C. Fritzgess, P. Schroedel, D. Baker. Mr. and Mrs. J. Baker arranged the party. The next day she was married to Mr. Sine, of Ohio, at the residence of Rev. Mr. Acheson, who officiated at the ceremony. After the marriage they took a train for Toronto, O., where they will live. Mr. M. Sine was formerly a pupil at the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf. Best wishes and good luck to the couple.

Mr. Charles Fritzgess, of North Side, went to Bellville to spend a week at Mr. and Mrs. T. Patton's. Mr. Patton has a large number of cherry trees, and this gave Mrs. C.

Fritzgess a chance to pick all the cherries she could and bring them home. She had a great time.

Walter Bosworth, of Scottsdale, Pa., has secured a position in the Draughting Department of McClintic-Marshall Construction Co., in this city. He pursued the course in draughting at Carnegie Technical School for two years after he graduated from the Edgewood School for the Deaf. Many of his friends are glad of his success.

Through the courtesy of Supt. W. N. Burt and the Board of Directors, the deaf and their friends will hold a picnic and field events on the grounds of the Edgewood School for the Deaf, on July 4th. Everybody is welcome to come. Arrangements will be made to entertain all who come. The picnic committee will serve refreshments, ice cream, etc., on the grounds.

William J. Hayes left this city for Baltimore, Md., to report for work on the B. & O. Railroad building. For two years he has been in the Census Bureau, at Washington, D. C., but he secured the position in Baltimore, which is more to his liking. Cardinal Gibbons took an interest in him, and hence through his influence William got a good position.

The following clipping is from the Western Pennsylvanian, the school paper published at the Edgewood School for the Deaf:

"Mr. Henry F. Winch, father of Mrs. C. A. Painter, died at his home in Jefferson, O., Monday, May 20th. He was 75 years, 1 month and 4 days old. The remains were brought to Hamstead where he had lived and worked in the mines many years before moving to Jefferson. The funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Sunday, Rev. Mr. Shaw, Mr. Winch's pastor for several years, officiating, and Miss Mabel Sawhill interpreting. Mr. Winch was educated at the Board Street School, Philadelphia. He is survived by his wife, five daughters, one son, six sisters, seventeen grand children and five great-grandchildren. Four of the children—Perry, George, Bell and Gerlie, attended school here."

Mr. and Mrs. W. McCracken, of Swissvale, moved to McKees Rocks, where Mr. McCracken is employed in the steel works.

A game of baseball between the Edgewood School for the Deaf nine and a nine composed of "college boys," who are at home from their different colleges, was played at Mifflin Avenue grounds in Wilkensburg. Frank Blackhall was pressed into service to play in the outfield for the deaf-mutes. His service, however, failed to materialize anything to win, as the collegians won by a score of 13 to 9.

Misses M. Zeleh and R. Carlier spent one day at Schenley Park, and both are in love with the beauty of the park.

The "20" Club, of this city, made a nice contribution of ten dollars for the N. A. D. to keep up their work in upholding the rights of the Deaf against the oralists. It will be sent to Mr. Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA.

Reported in the daily papers:

Commencement exercises at the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, were held this morning June 19th, in the chapel of Wissinoming Hall, Mt. Airy.

The feature of the exercises was the remarkable demonstration given by little Catharine May Frick, the eleven-year-old ward of the State, who has been under training at the institution during the last three years. Though she has only the sense of touch to depend on, little Miss Frick did typewriting work, recited a poem with good articulation, and carried on a conversation with her teacher. Her answers were written on a typewriter after she had read the questions by touch. Miss Frick also received the first prize of $2.50 for crochet work.

In the absence of Emlen Hutchinson, the president, the diplomas were presented by the vice-president, A. R. Montgomery. Senator Francis S. McElhenny delivered an address, and a scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Charles A. Smith. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Simon C. Hill.

The graduation essays were as follows: "Benjamin Franklin," Hannah Snyder Ahrens; "Three English Queens," Susan Marie Ericko; "St. Ambrose," Ida Mar-Cella Nicholson; "The women of Tennyson," Helen Stewart Rodes; "The Elizabethan Era in Literature," Ida Silnutzer; "China, and Its People," Mary Josephine Woods; "Robert Bruce," Myer Bailiff; "Charles I.," Marion Kelly Cooper; "Thomas A. Edison," George Ladislaus Studniasz; "The Advancement of Street Railway Transportation in Philadelphia," Sylvan Goldsmith Stern.

The graduates were Hannah Ahrens, Edith B. Booser, Lizzie E. Drake, Susan Ericko, Ida Nicholson, Helen S. Rodes, Ida Silnutzer, Mary J. Woods, George J. Barron, Myer Bailiff, Louis Berger, Marion K. Cooper, Sylvan G. Stern, and George Studniasz.

The following received honorable discharge from the institution: Susan F. Bress, Myrtle M. Stauffer, John J. Allen, Brice E. Burlingame, Ray E. Carson, William F. Messmer, Horton Smith, John Stanford and John B. Murphy.

The Gallaudet Club held a stated meeting at the residence of Dr. A. L. E. Crouter in Mt. Airy, on Saturday evening, June 22d. Mr. Frank Christman, formerly a teacher in the Kentucky School and now residing in Sellersville, Pa., was elected an associate member, and Mr. Alexander McGhee an active member. Dr. Crouter and Mr. F. V. Booth, Superintendent of the Nebraska School, sat with the Club, both being Honorary Members, and the latter made an encouraging address. Messrs. Reitner and Weaver, of the Mt. Airy School's teaching staff, were also present. The wives and lady friends of the members were being entertained by Mrs. Crouter, assisted by Miss Hess, in an adjoining room, during the meeting of the Club. After finishing his business, the members and the ladies were invited to the dining-room and treated to a fine luncheon, which was followed by a short but very pleasant social time.

The Bible School of All Souls' Church for the Deaf will hold its annual picnic in the woods near the Oxford Street entrance to Fairmont Park, the same place where it was held for several years past, on Saturday afternoon, July 6th. This is a "church family" picnic, not a money making affair, and all are welcome. But, in order that none may go hungry, the picnickers should bring their own baskets of eatables.

The Ledger, June 16th, reported the following:

"Benjamin Jerassy, five years old, a deaf-mute, of 109 Fernon Street, was run down by a Second Street car at Morris Street yesterday, and badly cut and bruised and four of his teeth were knocked out. He was taken to Mt. Sinai Hospital and will recover. His seven-year-old brother, Abraham, also a deaf-mute, saw the accident and ran to try and tell his mother. She recognized from his gesticulations and ran to the corner, where she burst through a crowd of horrified men and women around the car, under which the boy was tightly wedged."

Lettie and Alice Underwood, the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Underwood, were both operated upon for an affection of the throat at the Jefferson Hospital a few weeks ago. Lottie also underwent an operation of the nose. All turned out so successful that they rapidly recovered, and they seem as well as ever now.

Mr. Philip Boss, of Baltimore, Md., is in Philadelphia at present, and, if he can obtain work, he may stay indefinitely.

An unusual treat is in store for the deaf of Philadelphia, and all those who understand the sign-language. It will be a moving picture exhibition of Dr. E. M. Gallaudet delivering "Lorna Doone" in the sign-language. The exhibition will be given in the chapel of the Mt. Airy School, on Saturday evening, July 13th, at eight o'clock. Admission, twenty-five cents.

Saturday, July 20th, is the date of the Clerc Literary Association's excursion to Wildwood, N. J. The Committee on Arrangements has again arranged with the Hotel Beachwood to serve dinner to our people, at fifty cents a plate. The Committee has also arranged with a bathing establishment, to serve us. Tickets for both the dinner and hire of a bathing suit, should be bought from the committee.

Commencing on Sunday, June 7th, the time of service at All Souls' Church for the Deaf, will be changed from 2:30 P.M. to 10:30 A.M., and continue so through the summer. Mark this change and tell it to your friends.

Mrs. Lottie N. Stiles, of New Egypt, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Houston for a few days.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smielan were in Philadelphia recently. The former attended the meeting of the Board of Managers of the P. S. A. D., on June 7th, and the following Sunday he preached at All Souls' Church for the Deaf.

Vacation is on with the schools, and almost all but reporters and correspondents.

Surprise Party.

Saturday, June 15th, a surprise party was tendered to Mr. Pond, of 75 Frankton Avenue, Brockton, in honor of the sixtieth anniversary of his birth.

Mr. Pond knew nothing of the plans. As the time approached for the commencement of the party, Mr. Goldman took him to the park nearby his house for a pleasure walk and a breath of air before retirement.

During his absence a crowd of deaf people went in on the sly, and awaited his return.

The moment Messrs. Pond and Goldman came, in all present rushed forward and congratulated Mr. Pond, who was completely taken by surprise.

Mr. P. J. Thibodeau then made a presentation speech, very complimentary to Mr. Pond, after which he presented him with a purse of money. Mr. Pond was highly pleased.

At the conclusion of the presentation, various games were indulged in, which gave those present a great social time. Refreshments were served too. On the whole, they appreciated the treatment immensely.

Mrs. Stenham, of Auburn Street, Brockton, who took charge of the party, showed her good judgment and taste in the arrangements. Great credit should be given her for the success of the affair. The names of those present at the event are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Stenham, Mrs. Shea, Mrs. Haskell, Messrs. F. Libby, Wm. Burke, Richards, Young, P. Thibodeau, Wm. Hall, McChoncie, Ed. Sliney, P. Coon, J. Howard, F. Bosse, Goldman, Carlson, E. Cornwall, and Misses Dora Sliney, A. Lundstrom and Teresa Sliney.

BOSTONIAN.

Berkshire Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Morin have moved up to Dalton from Williamsett, Mass. Mr. Morin is working in the General Electric foundry at his old trade as core maker. They reside on Pine Street, across the road from Risley's. They are taking their first lesson in chicken raising, in which they have been quite successful.

Miss Laura Lenore, of Meriden, Conn., who had been visiting a friend in North Adams, Mass., stopped off here on her way home and visited Mrs. Sears for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Trainor's friends dropped in Saturday evening, June 15th, to help them celebrate the third anniversary of their marriage. Ice cream and cake was served.

Mrs. C. S. Risley has been entertaining her aunts, Miss Jennie West and Mrs. Helen Cobb, of Little Falls, N. Y., for the past week. They made a trip up to North Adams Sunday, June 8th, and took dinner there.

Mr. Clement Turgeon is building a new house on one of the lots he recently purchased. When completed he and his wife will occupy it.

Mrs. Mary Powell is living with Mr. and Mrs. Bedford, in Pittsfield, and is working in the knitting mill, where she has steady work.

Miss Ellen Tilton has gone to Northfield, Mass., to stay with her sister, Mrs. Frank Streeter, whose health is quite poor. Frank Streeter came down to Dalton after her.

Messrs. Burdick, Gagnier and Belouin, of North Adams, spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sears recently.

Mr. P. Morris expects to leave for Columbus, O., to attend the Frats convention the last of this month.

Mr. Small has been taking a week's vacation from his job in the General Electric. He took the chance to call on all his friends, who were all very glad to see him. He will resume work Monday, JUNE 15th. MAX.

Western Pennsylvania.

School at Edgewood Park closed on the 19th of June. The exercises were earlier than usual, in order to give the teachers a chance to attend the Rhode Island Convention.

Miss Alice Teegarden will not return home until July. She and her friend, Miss Sarah Scofield, have decided to take part in the convention. They both admit they are not half so wise as Solomon, so must attend such gatherings to learn to keep up with great New York.

Mr. William Hayes turned up in Wilkensburg recently. He was on his way to Baltimore, where he has obtained a good position as clerk, with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Miss Iva Roberts, daughter of Prof. L. Roberts, of the Western Pennsylvania School, was married to Mr. Walter E. Sheets, of San Francisco, the 16th of this month. Miss Roberts taught at the Mt. Airy School two years, but during the past year has been teaching in the school at Salem, Oregon.

Miss Jennie Cobb, one of our accomplished teachers of the Western Pennsylvania Institution, has started a little band of missionary workers. Despite their youth, they are doing well, and no doubt will turn out to be very useful women under the skillful guidance of Miss Cobb. Miss Emma Boyd, who is a master of signs, has been invited to sign "Nearer, my God, to Thee," before the little workers. We deaf are always pleased when such use of the sign-language is made, especially at this time when the oralists seem to have the floor.

Mr. John McCandless has been heard from. He likes his new field of labor down south in Talladega, Ala., where he is teaching, very much. Letters from friends say he is held in high esteem in the school. While we, the deaf of Pittsburgh, have lost a valuable worker, yet we are glad to know that he is appreciated.

Just as the teachers and officers of the Institution were in the midst of their work preparing for the closing exercises, which are to take place Wednesday, June 19th, a case of measles broke out and later several cases have developed.

Dr. and Mrs. Burt have not decided where they will spend their vacation. We hope that wherever it may be that they will have a most profitable and pleasant outing.

A Disinfectant

To disinfect a book which has been in the sick room wash the cover with some good purifier and put the book out in the open air for one day, where the sun can beat down upon it with all force. One of the best disinfectants is the black or crude carbolic acid. For each drain, basin or bath-tub, pour down one tablespoonful, then with boiling water cleanse on the pipe. In all cases of sewer gas this will prove an excellent purifier and give to any house or apartment a healthy odor. This hint is especially intended for those who live in town, but country dwellers will find it useful in case of the kitchen sink pipe, etc.

Light in Darkness.

A tender child of summers three,
Seeking her little bed at night,
Paused on the dark stairs, timidly;
"O mother, take my hand," said she,
"And then the dark will all be light!"

We older children grope our way
From dark behind to dark before;
And only when our hands we lay
In Thine, dear Lord, the night is day,
And there is darkness nevermore!
—John G. Whittier.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column, should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.
A few words of information in a letter or on a postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

The Metropolitan Chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association, entertained the Class of 1912 and other students who came to New York on their way home, on Friday and Saturday of last week. They saw Chinatown on Friday, and on Saturday afternoon and evening had a jolly time at Coney Island.

During the afternoon, Steeplechase Park furnished more hilarity to the minute than had ever before been crowded into their lives in a month.

A fine dinner was served at the Kaiser Garten at seven, presided over by Dr. Fox. Thirty covers were laid, and when the ice-cream came on speeches were made by Dr. Fox, Mr. Harris, Mr. Gardner, Mr. Birek, Mr. Hodgson and others.

Then all journeyed to Luna Park and saw as many of the shows as the time till nearly midnight would allow.

The college students and Co-eds were: Misses Anderson, Sharp, Sherman, and Scanlan; and Messrs. Harris, Birek, Arras, Gardner, Linde, and Fancher. The Alumni were: Dr. Fox, Messrs. Beadell, Campbell, Stevenson, Hodgson, Misses Tegarden, Thomason, Turner and Mrs. McCluskey. Mr. Fancher, Sr., and his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Stevenson, Mr. W. Renner, and a brother and friend of Mr. Birek, also were present.

Miss Sadie Reibstein became Mrs. Samuel Goldberg, on Monday evening, June 17th, and the next day the happy couple sailed for Europe. An account of the wedding will appear next week.

Mr. Robert P. McGregor reached New York on Wednesday evening, the 20th of June, and found Dr. Fox, Mr. Souweine and Mr. Hodgson at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station on his arrival. After an hour or so on "the great white way," he went to Grantwood, N. J., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Souweine. He visited Fanwood on the following day, and in the evening addressed a crowd of the deaf, of both sexes, at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League. Next day he was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ardine Rembeck. The latter was formerly one of his pupils at the Columbus Institution. On Saturday, he sailed for Glasgow, on the Cameronia of the Anchor Line. About the middle of July he will meet Messrs. Fox and Hodgson in England, and will journey with them to the Paris Congress.

On the evening of Wednesday, June 12th, at their apartments on Riverside Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Felix A. Simonson gave an elaborate farewell dinner in honor of Messrs. Frankenstein, Kohlman and Basch, previous to their departure for Europe.

The dining-room was a bewildering display of color. Streamers of colored crepe-paper ribbons formed a bower encompassing the large round table, at which the guests were seated. The table itself was a clever creation of color and significance. It was covered with crepe paper bearing American flags and shields. In the center was a large steamship, representing almost perfectly the George Washington of the North German Lloyds, on which the trio were booked to sail. The hull, masts, rigging, smoke stacks and ventilator pipes were reproduced to perfection. Officers, jolly tars, and passengers, were on the deck, while above, fluttering from the mastsheads were German and American flags, and stretched between them the pennants of different nations. The vessel seemed to rest upon a cleverly constructed ocean of green waves, with here and there a white cap to suggest the turbulence of the briny deep.

Strung round the ship were a number of tiny colored electric lights. At various distances were electric candleabra, with hand-painted shades depicting scenes on the ocean and the European continent. These latter were the work of the talented young artist, Miss Ruby Abrams.

The dinner was served in eight or ten courses, and the viands and service would have done credit to Sherry or Delmonico. The different courses had special wines, such as Chablis, Bordeaux Vieux, and Venve Cliquet.

A great surprise was sprung on the diners when the father and sisters of Mrs. Simonson entered, and also Mrs. Joseph Sonneborn. Mr. Simonson took the floor and announced that Mrs. Simonson and himself had also engaged passage on the George Washington and would sail with Messrs. Frankenstein, Kohlman and Basch, on June 15th. He exhibited steamer tickets and passport, and both he and his lovely wife were enthusiastically congratulated.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Simonson, there were present: Samuel Frankenstein, D. Ellis Lit, Joseph Sonneborn, Henry C.

Kohlman, Emil Basch, Francis W. Lubner, Emanuel Souweine, Marx Levy, Harry C. Dickerson, M. W. Leow, Marcus L. Kenner, Edwin A. Hodgson, Arthur C. Bachrach, Charles C. McMann, James B. Gass.

At St. Francis Xavier's College Theatre, 34 West Sixteenth Street, next Sunday, June 30th, a reception and commemorative exercises will be held, under the auspices of a ladies' committee of twenty-four, representing the Allied Xavier Deaf-Mute Societies. A varied program of interesting numbers assures enjoyment for all the deaf and their friends attending. Responses to invitations issued indicate the presence of many non-Catholics as well as members of the different societies of which Father McCarthy is director. The presence of Father Moeller, S.J., of Chicago, on his stop over in this city, en route for the Paris Congress, is considered very probable. Among other friends of Catholic deaf, Father Thomas Galvin, the well known Redemptionist Missionary, has been invited to attend, and is expected to respond. A slight assessment has been decided upon by the Committee, payable at the entrance. The exercises begin at 3 o'clock, and the Committee cordially request the presence of all the deaf and their friends to help make the occasion a noteworthy gathering of the deaf, expressive of the esteem in which Father McCarthy is held by the local and nearby silent community.

Are you coming to the outing of the Guild of Silent Workers at Fanwood, on Saturday, July 6th? You bet! Would not miss it for anything. The graduates of Fanwood will be out in full force. The fresh young graduate scarcely used to the feel of citizens' clothes and the gray-headed boys of long ago will be there in squads, platoons, brigades and regiments. The ladies—bless them—they will be very much in evidence. The sweet flirtations of Misses of sixteen summers and the staid matrons you used to tease when they were little girls in short frocks and beribboned braids. You will see them in beavies, flocks, whole galaxies. But it really makes no difference whether Fanwood was your Alma Mater or not, you will be just as welcome. The youngsters will shoulder arms and step out to the boom-boom-boom of the drum and the shrill squeal of the fifes. Watch 'em. "Skinny," class of 1895, cannot "port arms" as snappily as he did once. The last three buttons of his vest sadly interfere with his rifle. Grown stout? Well, I should say so. He has to stretch himself to "present arms." The lank captain of Company "A" stutters his orders. He has not given an order in five years. His wife attends to that now. There will be a circus too, to please the kiddies and the grown-ups besides, and no end of athletics to stretch old muscles. A first-class caterer has promised to look after the lining of the inner man, when that lining shrinks, and to kick the capping off the climax, Enoch Henry Carrier, M. A., Principal, will beam on his old boys and girls. There will be dancing in the evening for such as care to shake the ponderous hoof, but the "Wireless Wriggle" and the "Grapevine Grapple" are barred absolutely. Come, on you. Everybody worth anything will meet you there. Those veterans who are to compete in the drill, please be on hand early.

Dig up an old masquerade costume and join in the circus parade and the gymkhana afterwards. Handsome prizes go to the owners of the funniest costumes.

At the Olympic games in Stockholm, Sweden, next month, the Xavier Deaf-Mute Club, will, in a way be represented by "Hal" Heiland, the crack sprinter of the Cherry X organization. Close followers of amateur athletics consider Heiland one of the most consistent performers and the equal of any sprinter in the world to-day. At the recent Harvard tryouts, he captured both his heats in the 100 and 200 meter dashes, in 11 and 32 seconds flat. In the selection of the Olympic committee he was placed first on the "supplementary" list, which meant he could go to Sweden as a member of the American team if he would defray his own expenses. His club associates, with only twenty-four hours time in which to make good, decided "Hal" should go, and corralled enough greenbacks to place him on board the Finland Friday morning last with the other representatives of Uncle Sam. The silent members of the Cherry X Club, at short notice chipped in ten dollars toward the expense of the trip.

The mute acquaintances and classmates of Mrs. Morris Marks, formerly Miss Sadie Freeman, will shock, as well as surprised, to learn that she has passed away suddenly and unexpectedly. Death was due to inordinate exercise that resulted in premature childbirth. She was on the road to recovery, and looked forward with pleasure to being back with her husband and children. Three weeks ago she was so ill that she had to be transferred to the Eastern District Hospital in Brooklyn, where she could secure better medical attention than she could at home. She died in the early hours of Sunday morning, June 23d, and the next day her remains were shipped to Hartford, Conn., for interment. She was thirty-five years old. She is survived by her husband and three children. She was educated at the Rochester and Fanwood institutions, and, being a semi-mute, she was an intelligent lady.

Quite a large number attended the Whist Party at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League on Saturday evening, June 23d.

After the contest refreshments were served, and all had an enjoyable evening.

The lady winners were:—Mrs. Moses W. Leow, 1st; Mrs. Sophie Leow, 2d; Miss Ruth Moorar, 3d. The gentlemen:—Mr. A. V. Ballin, 1st; Mr. Henry Miller, 2d; Mr. Keith W. Morris, 3d. Mrs. M. L. Kenner and Mr. Alfred Ernst captured the baby prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Heyman sailed on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, on Tuesday, June 11th, to be gone four months, and will take in Germany, France, Ireland, and probably England. If there was any doubt as to the loyalty of their friends it has certainly dispelled by the numerous callers, who came to bid them "Bon Voyage," the farewell letters, and the goodly sized crowd that came from distances, unasked, to bid them Godspeed, and the numerous floral offerings that filled a large part of their cabin. We wish them and their relatives a safe and pleasant journey.

Miss Annie Klein, Messrs. Swey and Breslau, journeyed over to their old friend's, Jack Hafl, country estate in Glenwood, L. I., June 16th, with the intention of going fishing, but the tide would not permit, so they postponed it until June 23d, and with Mr. Austin Fogarty, who dropped over from Glen Cove, went to fish in Mr. Hafl's flat-boat, but luck was not too good, and after fishing for over four hours, had three flounders and two eels between them. Not so bad, eh?

To those intending to go to the American Society of Deaf Artists' Island party, the route is as follows: Take any car marked West Farms or White Plains or Mt. Vernon Tell conductor to let you off at Gun Hill Road. The Hermitage is close to Bronx Park, and can be easily found from where one leaves trolley at Gun Hill Road. A member of the society will probably be there to direct you.

Mr. Leon P. Jones who finished his work at Underwood's factory, then went to Washington to join with his college class, to "paint the town red." He is now in Littleton, N. H., on a farm with his uncle, which is near the White Mountains.

Last Wednesday, Henry L. Juhring, H. Schnackenberg, and H. Stengele, of Plainfield, N. J. The three Henrys came out to Bayport, L. I., to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Greis. Messrs. Stengele and Greis had not met in some twenty-five years.

Mrs. Hannah Vetterlein, of New York, will leave to visit relatives in the West, and remain there one or two years.

Rabbi Sale Weds Deaf-Mute Couple.

UTILIZES SIGN LANGUAGE.

In a wedding ceremony during which not a word was spoken, Charles Wolff, brother of Edward H. Wolff, president of the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., and Mrs. Attie Leff Gottbainer, of Chicago, were married by Rabbi Samuel Sale at the Wolff residence, 4625 Lindell Boulevard, at seven o'clock last night. Sign language and writing were employed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wolff are deaf-mutes. Their courtship, silent as the wedding, extended over a period of several months. Letters are said to have been more frequently exchanged than in any other courtships. When they made plans for the ceremony, Rabbi Sales' knowledge of the sign language led to his selection to officiate. Only intimate friends were present.

After a brief honeymoon trip, the couple will return to St. Louis. They will reside at 3814 Kennerly Avenue—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, June 8.

Lemon Ice.

One-fourth cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of boiling water and two tablespoonfuls of fresh lemon juice. Make a sirup by boiling sugar and water five minutes. Cool, add lemon juice, strain and freeze, using three parts of finely crushed ice to one part of rock salt. Serve in frappe glasses.

OHIO.

[News items for this column, may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 903 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

JUNE 13, '12.—The end of the school year came Tuesday morning at 10:30, without any blowing of horns. The regular chapel service was held at 9:30 o'clock, at which the Principal gave the pupils some fatherly advice as to their conduct during vacation. They were then dismissed to their respective class rooms, promotion cards given to such as had earned them, and at 10:30 o'clock they were dismissed. Dinner was served at 11, and shortly thereafter a number of pupils with their teachers left for the depots to take the first trains out. None of the teachers accompanied pupils on the trains. By evening more than half of the pupils were speeding homeward and reached home. Those left were sent the next morning, and by noon of Wednesday the school and main buildings and grounds were deserted of the usual life and activity about them.

About all the out-of-town teachers have left for their respective homes. Miss Alice Arbough of the 3d Primary Oral Class, after a short stay at her home in Belmont County, will go to Wisconsin to teach a private pupil during the summer. Superintendent Jones leaves tomorrow for Massachusetts, to be in attendance next week at his daughter's graduation from Wellesley College. He will then go on to Providence to attend the 9th Summer meeting of the American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf, which opens on the 25th inst.

The last ball game of the school year was played Saturday afternoon, the Plymouth Congregational Church team and O. S. S. D. all stars, with the following results:

The Clonian Society held its annual social Saturday evening, with a good attendance, and a variety of doings to make the occasion enjoyable. Games and guessing contests. In the latter a fine apple was handed Superintendent Jones and told to guess its weight, which he did exactly, and was given the fruit. Ice cream, cake, bananas and strawberries, were served during the evening. The society netted over eighteen dollars, which will be used for the benefit of the Home.

The Home residents are enjoying the fine crop of strawberries produced there this year. Miss Richards is still at home in Michigan, but is expected back the last of the month. Superintendent Chapman is giving the corn its first cultivation.

Mrs. E. S. Jones, former matron of the Home, is spending a few days in the city, as guest of Superintendent and Mrs. Jones.

Mr. Emory E. Everett, who for many years kept the grocery at the corner of Washington Avenue and Oak Street, and who is remembered by many of the former boys of the school, died last week. The store was first owned by his father, then by an older brother, and at his death by Emory, though he was connected with it from the time of its opening about 1868.

Gen. George M. Ziegler, aged 80 and a civil war veteran, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. E. Barker, of this city, last Friday evening. His wife died last March. He had been sick for over a year. Eight children survive, one of whom, George M., Jr., was a pupil here. The General was a member of the Board of Managers of the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, having been such almost from the time the Board was formed up to his death. He took great interest in its affairs and until his health prevented attended all Board meetings.

Beginning with last week's issue, quite a number of the Chronicle subscribers have the JOURNAL sent them for the next thirteen weeks. We shall be glad if any of them will forward us news or important happenings from their localities during the summer, and thus help to interest Ohio readers especially.

Cleveland is entertaining this week some three thousand visitors from all parts of the country, drawn there by the meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Correction, and a dozen kindred associations engaged in social work, and she is doing the entertaining handsomely, too. Just as she will treat the N. A. D. in 1913.

JUNE 20, '12.—Go to Cleveland, July 4th, and join in celebrating the 136th anniversary of our country's independence with the deaf there, in a picnic at Euclid Beach Park, under the auspices of Rev. B. R. Allabough and his congregation. You sure will have a gala time and will not regret having attended. A big time is promised. There will be boating, bathing and swimming, and other attractions to lure you. Bring along a well-filled lunch basket. All the deaf in and near Cleveland are cordially invited to attend the affair, so come and enjoy yourself for everybody will be doing it.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. McGregor went up to the Home Sunday, the former to give the residents a Sunday talk. On the way home, when reaching Westerville, Mr. McGregor was compelled to wait a couple of hours, owing to the wires being down from the effects of a storm that passed over that section early in the afternoon and did considerable damage. Finding that no car could run for some time, a hay wagon was produced and some ten or more people taken on it to Linden, six miles distant, where car connection was again made, thus enabling Mr. McGregor to reach his home late in the night.

Mr. McGregor left here Tuesday noon for Pittsburg, Pa., where he was to be the guest of Mr. Frank Gray till the next day. Then on to New York where Mr. E. Souweine, one of his former pupils in Cincinnati, would entertain him up to the time of his taking the steamship for Scotland on the 22d inst. Here is wishing Mac a safe and pleasant trip across the "Briny Deep."

Miss Lulu Denman, who for several years has acceptably filled the duties of stenographic clerk to Superintendent Jones, resigned last week. The papers announce that she is to be married to Mr. R. Forward on the 29th inst.

The engagement of Miss Jessie May Stanbaugh, of Warren, O., who completed her school course here several years ago, to Mr. Pretlow Mungler, of Wadsworth, is announced. The wedding day is not made known.

Hazel Josephine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. H. Long, of Chicago, is among the graduates of the Horatio N. May School, of Chicago. The graduating exercises took place June 20th.

Mr. Charles Neillie, Cleveland's tree doctor, has gone and done it—i.e., become the possessor of an automobile. So we presume that when a tree cries for assistance he will be on the spot in a moment. Cleveland is a city of magnificent distances and has a multitude of trees to be taken care of, hence its name—Forest City—and the auto will come handy to Mr. Neillie in his business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Winemiller, with their little child, have come to Cleveland from Colorado Springs, Col., to spend the vacation. While in the Forest City, Mr. Winemiller will no doubt give the Cleveland deaf some valuable pointers as to the preparations necessary for entertaining the N. A. D., he having taken a hand in the Colorado Springs meet in 1910.

As the commencement issue of the JOURNAL last week kept out all correspondence, several items we have on hand will have to be kept on ice till next week, in order to relieve the pressure on the JOURNAL's columns.

Mrs. Annie B. Callison goes to Zanesville Monday, to remain with her mother until she becomes strong enough to resume her work. She has been getting along nicely since leaving the hospital.

Mrs. Charles and children left for Flint, Mich., last Thursday morning, to spend the summer with her parents. Mr. Charles will join them in the latter part of July.

Otto Seidowski is assisting in painting about the Institution. He is homeless, and stays with us this summer, as he did last.

It is a treat to visit Fred Schwartz's "poultry yard." He has one hundred and seventy-eight chickens in all stages of growth, including seventy-five recently hatched in an incubator.

The Rev. B. R. Allabough is trying to arrange for a conference of church workers among the deaf at Trinity Parish House, on July 5th. Mr. Neutzing is putting in his time assisting the carpenter, as he has nothing to do in the shoe shop.

A brother of Miss Hartha Wittenmeier is to be married shortly. Miss Wittenmeier's mother met with a misfortune last Sunday. She and husband were out driving when the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing both out and dislocating Mrs. Wittenmeier's shoulder.

Mrs. Angie Fuller Fischer has sent Mr. Zorn one dollar, as a gift to the Mann Memorial Window. She was well acquainted with the Mann family, having corresponded with Mrs. Mann before her marriage. She also has a picture of their son, Howard, when he was a little boy.

Rev. J. H. Cloud is booked to give a service at Trinity Chapel, Columbus, Sunday, June 30th, at 3 P.M. The morning service will be omitted. Mr. Cloud is a delegate to the Fraternal Convention.

Harry Dix left last Monday for Auburn, Ind., near which city he will work on a farm this summer. His address is Route 3, Care of H. Swander.

W. N. Toomey left Friday evening, for Canton, to visit his mother until July 2d, when he will return to take part in the F. S. D. Convention sights. Later he may go to Cincinnati to see what prospects he has of securing a situation at printing.

MARYLAND.

The annual commencement of the Maryland school for the Colored Blind and Deaf took place at Albough Theatre, before a large assemblage. They possessed all their faculties singing, dancing, shouting lustily, like normal car-free children. Their performances were a tribute to the skill and energy of the Principal and his corps of assistants. Society folks sat in the boxes and listened with rare pleasure to the songs, dialogues and recitations of the blind pupils and the play by the deaf pupils.

The deaf-mutes connected with Mission Helpers Convention had a May procession on the street, which was followed by devotions in the Convention Chapel. "Mother Dear, Pray for Me," was sung in the sign language. The act of consecration was offered by Miss Alice Edelen, a Knapp Oral School graduate, '96. Mrs. Kratsell sang a hymn after an address by Mr. J. Kalal, which concluded the services of the adults. The pupils had their services of consecration led by Miss Meloeik, a pupil, and Rev. M. A. Purcell, the chaplain of the Catholic Deaf-Mute's Mission of this city, delivered the sermon.

The members of the Maryland State Association ignored Secretary Brandlick's announcement that the Maryland State Convention would take place in Baltimore, July 29th till August 2d, on grounds that he decided the dates himself without consulting with the officers of that organization. August 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, are looked for by the deaf-mutes all over Maryland.

Officers, get up and make the meeting successful this year, and then we will forget the failure of that meeting two years ago!

The deaf picnic, which was organized by the younger element last summer at Druid Hill Park, will swell the Maryland State Association enjoyment, by inviting them to the picnic, which will take place at the Druid Hill Park. Prizes will be given to the winners in all kinds of contests. The officers are: President, Mr. Friederich; Vice-President, Mr. Gallion; Secretary, Mr. Whildin; Treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Leitner. Committee, Miss Barry, Mr. Moylan and Mr. Benson.

Rev. O. J. Whildin just returned from a whirlwind barnstorming trip in the South. He was telling ye scribe of his visit to the Flood District, and visited Texas, Florida, Louisiana and Alabama.

Mr. Geo. Faupel, a teacher of the Maryland School for the Deaf, gave an interesting and instructive lecture before a large crowd of deaf-mutes at the Christ M. E. Church. The receipts from admission will be used to decrease the church debt.

The strawberry and ice cream festivals at Grace Deaf Mission, Christ M. E. Church and First Baptist Church, took place last week and made money, and each chairman deserved our compliments.

Miss May Thomas, a Knapp Oral School graduate, '92, died after a fifteen weeks' illness, of heart trouble and dropsy last week. She was buried at London Cemetery. Mrs. McElroy, Miss Baker and Mr. Hildebrand, who were her classmates, attended the funeral services. Miss Thomas seldom mingled with the deaf community. She was an expert lip-reader and could be hardly taken for a deaf-mute.

The deaf pupils of the Maryland School for the Deaf at Frederick were treated to an interesting and instructive lecture, by Rev. Mr. Bryant, on an invitation of the Ely Literary Society. His subject, was John Burroughs, Naturalist. At the conclusion of the subject he told little humorous stories.

The annual game of baseball between the team of the West Virginia School for the Deaf and the first team of the Maryland School took place at Romney, W. Va. Our team easily defeated the mountain boys, by a score of 12 to 2. Foxwell pitched a good game. They have met three times and three victories belong to our team.

Mr. J. Boyle, a ball player who has been in Baltimore for several weeks, has gone home to Oakland, Md., where he expects to play for this summer.

The mutes' base ball team of this city played the Remington Athletic team, and both played a see and saw game until darkness prohibited them from playing longer. The score was 10 to 10 at the end of the eleventh inning. The mutes' baseball team will meet this week to elect officers and expects to have a strawberry fete, and the receipts will be used in buying uniforms, bats, balls, etc. They expect to play regular every week, as soon as the Maryland School closes for the summer vacation.

Recently the Belmar Road car, while descending a steep street, lost its brake and sped down and ran into the Wilkins Street car which crossed the tracks, and smashed the car into many pieces. Mr. Alfred Feast and his daughter escaped injury. They were mysteriously unhurt, because they were in the most damaged place.

Mr. Albert Buxton was home for several days with his family at Gowanstown, and has gone away to sell "motto" cards in Rochester.

Mr. James Brandlick, who spent several days with his "oyster dredger" friends down at Ridgely, returned home much benefited by the Eastern shore air. He helped Mr. Bowdell at shoemaking.

Charles Kuhn and W. Dilworth, well known as fighters, or known as Dummy Ketchel and Decker, have quit fighting, and they said it injured their health more than making money. Both were wise in their decisions and we hope they will never fight again.

The members of the Christ M. E. Church will have an excursion down the bay to Tolchester Beach, a popular resort for the Baltimoreans.

Miss Annie Barry, who spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tschiffely at Rockville, returned home in time to be present at the lecture given by Mr. Merrill, the "Weather Man." At the conclusion of the lecture refreshments were served among the deaf.

The Grace Deaf-Mute Mission will have a private picnic on June 29th, at No. 6 Grove, Druid Hill, and every mute who wishes to go is heartily welcome. Cakes and ice cream will be distributed among those who go there.

Frank Stewart, of Washington, D. C., was in Baltimore last Sunday on pleasure, and was seen at the Baptist church, where Rev. Mr. Bryant preached.

Messrs. Gallion and Ramsey called on Mr. Isaac Friederich at the hospital for a short chat. They are from Perryville, Md.

Ye scribe was informed that the officers of the Maryland State Association decided that the convention will take place in Baltimore August 6-7-8-9, which caused the members to smile. They are looking for a big success.

The Parkville School for Colored Deaf will play the Annapolis team next Saturday. It will be the first time they played an outside team since the school was founded. They sent word to ye scribe to come down and see the game.

Miss Frances Wood gave a card party last Wednesday afternoon. Those present were: Misses Wiegand, Hecht, Barry, Kilgore, and Mrs. O. J. Whildin, and others whose names I failed to gather. They had a good time.

Mr. Isaac Friederich, who was knocked by the Gilmor Street car last Fall, is now at his home on West Franklin Street, after seven months' confinement in St. Vincent Hospital, and is slowly mending. We are glad to make note of it.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

Gallaudet College officially closed its doors for the collegiate year of 1911-1912, Wednesday at noon, after twenty graduates had received their degrees earlier in the morning. Most of the students left the city for home on morning trains, and the few, with one or two exceptions, who remained, left on afternoon and evening trains.

Sunday afternoon, June 16th, President Hall delivered the annual Baccalaureate Sermon to the Senior Class, before a large assembly of students and visitors from the city. President Hall took as his subject, the class motto, Speculamur Agendo, and gave an excellent talk.

Kendall Green was recently visited by another of these electrical wind storms, for which Washington is noted. Sunday evening a perfect hurricane came up, and what few trees about the Green that had heretofore escaped injury during showers, "got theirs" last Sunday. Quite a number of them were stripped of branches.
